

Abstract Submission Form
5th ORI Research Conference on Research Integrity
(New Deadline: November 24, 2008)

Directions for submissions:

WORD Version

1. Fill in information requested below
2. Save and send to: nsteneck@umich.edu

PDF Version

1. Type information in email message
2. Send to: nsteneck@umich.edu

I. Author/organizer information:

Name
Institutional affiliation
Postal Address
Email Address
Phone	Fax

II. Type of presentation: (check one)

- ☐ Research (15-20 minutes – report on empirical studies of research integrity)
- ☐ Methods (15-20 minutes – discussion of novel research methodologies)
- ☐ Critical issue analysis (15-20 minutes – review of critical literature and issues)
- ☐ Panel discussion (90 minutes, 3-4 presentations organized around critical issue; include names)
- ☐ Poster presentation (4' x 6' poster presenting data or other critical information about research integrity)

III. Abstract:

1. Title (Brief and descriptive):

2. For Panels - Proposed Panel Members and Affiliations (Panels must be multi-institutional and designed to encourage discussion:

3. Objective (50 words):

4. Summary of main findings or key points (250 words):

5. Conclusions & recommendations (100 words):

Review: Proposals will normally be reviewed within 2-3 weeks and authors notified by email of the decision to accept or reject. Priority will be given to proposals that present empirical information on or propose to address topics that have bearing on the responsible conduct of research. Areas of interest include:

- – Authorship and publication
- – Collaborative and international research
- – Conflict of Interest (financial and other)
- – Data management practices
- – Human and animal subject research
- – Institutional issues (universities/societies)

- – Peer review
- – Questionable research practices
- – Research climate (social aspects)
- – Research misconduct (FFP)
- – Teaching and mentoring

Other topics are welcomed. Please explain in your summary why you believe a particular topic is important.

For conference information and forms, go to: http://ori.hhs.gov/conferences/upcoming_conf.shtml